The Effects of Sin

Scripture wastes no time in revealing the ugliness of sin and its tragic effects upon mankind.

In the early chapters of Genesis, we see clearly just how deeply and profoundly sin impacts us.

Sin should cause shame.

- After Adam and Eve ate from the tree of which they were commanded not to eat, they immediately felt shame.
- Gen. 3:7 – they realized they were naked and thus fashioned themselves some clothes
- The experience of shame is actually a good thing when our conscience is working as it should. We were designed by God to be ashamed of our participation in sin. The biggest problem arises when we have seared our conscience (1 Tim. 4:2) and are no longer able to blush or feel shame (cf. Jer. 6:15; 8:12).
- The good news is we don't have to live with our shame! Thanks to the atoning work of Jesus, our sins can be forgiven and forgotten – no need to carry our shame!

Sin should cause fear.

- Adam and Eve were in fear of what the Lord would do now that they had disobeyed His commandment.
- Gen. 3:10 – they hid because they were afraid of how God would react to their sin
- Our sin brings about the fear of death and judgment (Heb. 2:15; Rev. 6:15-17).
- The good news is we don't have to live in fear! Thanks to the atoning work of Jesus, we can be assured of our salvation and know that Heaven is our home (1 John 2:28-29; 5:13, 18)!

Sin causes separation.

- Adam and Eve went from enjoying paradise in the presence of God to being kicked out of the Garden of Eden because of their sin.
- Gen. 3:23-24; 4:16 – sin was quickly followed by removal from God's presence
- Our sin brings about separation from our God (Isa. 59:2).
- The good news is we don't have to live separated from the Lord. Thanks to the atoning work of Jesus, we can be reconciled to our God (Rom. 5:11)!

Sin often leads to escalation.

- Adam and Eve, Cain and Able, even the man known as Lamech saw their situations spiral out of control after their initial sins and lack of faith.
- Gen. 3:6; 4:23-24 – sins of pride and jealousy spiraled into violence
- When we sin, it is often the case that one thing leads to another and before we know it, we find ourselves in an unrecognizable (and terrifying) position.
- The good news is we don't have to remain in this agonizing position. Thanks to the atoning work of Jesus, we can be restored to our place of peace and joy (1 Pet. 5:10)!

Sin is terrible and painful, but God's grace is greater. Let us give thanks for the blessings that are ours in Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 2:14).

--Bart

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.

Philippians 4:6

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, And into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

Psalms 100:4

Thank You Notes

Thank you for the boxes of breakfast sausage sandwiches and sausage. Our families at Park City and Red Cross really enjoyed them. Thank you for all you do for us.

Dear family,

We want to thank you for all the cards and prayers you have sent our way. We certainly appreciate the love and sweet thoughts. Please keep us in your prayers. We have a long road to travel yet.

Much love,
Mark & Debbie Isenberg

To our South Green family,

We've been overwhelmed by the show of love and care showered down on us since I went down asking for prayers last Sunday and even before. Having something that alters your everyday life has been an experience in patience with my limitations, as well as, making sure I keep my mind in the strength of God's Word to push me through. I appreciate all the texts, cards of encouragement, food and love, not to mention all the prayers which have truly given me so much strength. As I'm less than a week away from surgery, I know those prayers are what will carry me through, them and the strength and courage the Lord will give me. Thanks again!

Love you all loads,
Lynn & Tommy Vick

EU & CYC

To confirm registration plans for Evangelism University (Jan 17-19) and Challenge Youth Conference (Feb 20-23) all youth and parents interested in those events are asked to meet in room 204 immediately after services on Sunday, December 1. Should you have any questions, contact Jeremy or Asa.

Pantry

Items needed for the pantry: 5 oz cans tuna, chicken noodle soup, tomato soup, mac and cheese, peanut butter, pasta sauce (no glass containers) and crackers.

Young N Heart

Now scheduled is a holiday meal for the Young N Heart on Sunday, December 8, after morning services in the church basement. We will prepare fruit baskets for our church family shut-ins. If you would like to donate money or bring an item for the baskets, please see Carol Weaver. After the meal and basket prep, we'll have some game time. This time, no mystery, your choice of game to enjoy. The meal will be $10 per person. The menu has been posted. Please sign up by December 5 so we will have a count for the meal. See John or Carol Weaver to pay when you sign up and/or if you have any questions.
