Something New

There is something special about standing at the edge of something new.

Anticipation...Hope...Wonder...

As we enter the first week of a brand new year, we stand at the edge of something new. A year full of opportunities and possibilities. What will we do? Where will we go? What will we learn? What will the Divine Potter do with us, His clay vessels?

I am reminded of occasions in biblical history when God's people were nearing new phases in the scheme of redemption...

Moses before the Tabernacle was ready

- Can you imagine the way Moses must have felt when he was shown that all the work had been completed? (Exodus 39:32-43)
- Then, the anticipation must have been off-the-charts once the structure had been assembled. (Exodus 40:16-33)

Solomon before the Temple was ready

- As you read 1 Kings 5-8, the excitement builds with each item listed and put into place.
- They knew this was a special occasion (cf. 1 Kings 8:5), and they couldn't wait to see what the Lord would do.

The Disciples together on Pentecost

- They had been told to wait in the city until they were "clothed with power from on high" (Luke 24:49).
- What must it have been like to be in that room on Pentecost before the Lord fulfilled His promise and filled them all with the Holy Spirit? (Acts 2:1-4)

The New Testament Church today

- We should be excited to see what the Lord has in store for His people (Rom. 8:24-25).
- We should be filled with wonder as we consider that we serve a God who can bless beyond our imaginations (Eph. 3:20-21).

For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

Romans 8:24-25

Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, <sup>21</sup> to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 3:20-21
