Dependability

During my formative years, my parents constantly talked to me about “reputation” and being “dependable!” They constantly talked to me about doing my best to have a positive reputation of “not” causing other people problems and simply being counted on at school, society, and in the workplace. Simply put, I was to strive to be dependable.

We totally understand the importance of “being there” for someone when needed. Additionally, we appreciate and seek someone who we can “count on” and be dependable for us! Typically, we start out with our parents, move to other family members, maybe teachers (counselors, coaches, administrators, bus drivers), school-age peers, eventually a spouse, and adult friends (inner circle, co-workers). Hopefully, in the aforementioned group, we can find some or several who can be dependable for us. Conversely, we are that for them. But, we know, as we tarry on in the journey of life, we have “let downs.” Those on who we have counted on have the potential to disappoint us for one reason or another. What’s the good news? Well, the good news is Jesus Christ. Jesus is always there for us, provided, we are seeking Him!

Philip Sanders, faithful gospel preacher and speaker for the In Search of the Lord’s Way, said this about Jesus: “I am captive to the story of an ancient One, born of a virgin, laid in a manger, who loved all, worked miracles, lifted the fallen, healed the sick, raised the dead, and suffered on the cross for my sins. I only wish to tell that story till I can no longer speak. No story is so high, so noble, so touching, so persuasive, or so glorious. No story draws the soul to search the heart and change the life. No story makes one feel the urgency to deny oneself, to take up a cross, and to follow the One who loves. Yes, this story is above human ingenuity; it must be from God Himself. Only the word ‘gospel’ could fully describe life in Christ. It is life indeed, newness of life, abundant life, and eternal life. It can come from no other than the Father through the Spirit. I am captive to a story greater than all.”

Jesus is not only “there” for us, He has been from the beginning. Jesus is dependable and we should be seeking Him and have confidence He will never let us down. Jesus is:

- Savior of the world – Luke 19:10
- The Son of God – John 9:35-37
- A King – John 18:37
- Author and finisher of our faith – Hebrews 12:2
- Lord – 1 Thessalonians 1:1

May we seek to be dependable, but may we never depend on anyone more than we do on Jesus.

Thank You Note

Charlotte and I would like to express our deepest gratitude to the church at South Street church of Christ. We are especially thankful to Nancy, Amy, and everyone who played a role in preparing the bereavement meal following my father's funeral this past Sunday. Your kindness and generosity meant so much to us during this difficult time. We are also incredibly grateful to the church for allowing us to hold my father's funeral there and to Jackie Perkins and all those who helped coordinate and assist the funeral home in ensuring a meaning and respectful service. To everyone who has reached out with prayers, text messages, and words of encouragement your support has been a great comfort to our family. The outpouring of love and kindness we have received will never be forgotten.

With heartfelt appreciation,
Larry Glass and Family
