I Sometimes Forget...

We all have strengths and weaknesses in all areas of life. Personally, my weaknesses far outweigh my strengths. But, one strength I have is I feel I have a “good memory.” I can remember dates, most facts, and interactions from decades past. However, I sometimes get wrapped around the “wheel of life” and fail to remember to count my blessings and give thanks for all the things I have! I strive to remind myself periodically of what God allows me to have and enjoy. Psalm 23 provides me with a “ready recollection” of how fortunate you and I really are.

Psalm 23:1-6 says, “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.” When we read these words, we truly are reminded that our cup really does “run over!”

Wayne Jackson wrote in the article, “My Cup Runs Over” in the Christian Courier about this section of Scripture. Bro. Jackson stated these points:

1. As a Shepherd, God provides for our needs.
2. He makes us lie down for necessary rest, sometimes even when we are inclined to resist.
3. And he leads us beside calm waters.
4. He restores (refreshes and sustains) our lives, and he guides us in righteous ways.
5. He does not exempt us from dangerous circumstances, but he does calm our fears.
6. We are confident He is with us and are comforted in that assurance.
7. As our providential Host, He prepares a table containing our needs.
8. So confident are we of His care, we can enjoy his sumptuous fare even in the intimidating presence of our enemies.
9. From the background of the ancient world comes the metaphor of anointing our heads with oil (This was a reviving comfort and a symbol of honor.).
10. Our cup runs over.
11. Goodness and kindness are faithful traveling companions bestowed for life.
12. And in the loving host’s household, the saved abide forever.

These twelve reminders point us to not only the blessings we have, but the resources God allows to enjoy along with the opportunity to be “equipped” as we go through life towards eternity. We recognize that life is tough, hard, challenging with an abundance of obstacles. But, may we remember we are made in God’s image (Genesis 1:27) and our soul is more valuable than any material item on earth (Matthew 16:26). As we are being comforted, are we helping to comfort others (Luke 12:48)? As we remember our cup runs over, may we share the Good News of Jesus with others. The love of our Lord is something we should always remember!

~Allen

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: "Whom shall I send, And who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."

Isaiah 6:8

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Galatians 2:20

For we walk by faith, not by sight.

2 Corinthians 5:7

Thank You Notes

Church Family,

Thank you so much for the calls, visits, food at the funeral visitation and the wonderful bereavement meal. We love our church family and appreciate all you do! Please continue to pray for comfort in the days to come for our family.

Love the family of Seth Thomas Groce,
Tommy & Tammy & family
Gary & Missy & family

I would like to thank my church family for all the prayers, cards, calls, and visits during my recent surgery. I greatly appreciate it.

In Christian Love,
Mike Pruitt
